¹ FANR 3000-3000L must be taken in the first term that a student is in the professional program (official major).

² FANR 3300-3300D meets for the first half of the semester, and FANR 3400-3400D meets for the last half of the semester at the same time.

³ Excess credit in FANR 4271 or FORS 4270 may be applied towards major electives. No more than three hours of PRTM 3900 may count towards graduation. Students must apply for internship credit before starting work.

⁴ Students must apply to take Senior Thesis in the term prior to their graduation term. Undergraduate research can be used for up to three hours of the four required for Thesis. Both Senior Project and Senior Thesis fulfill UGA's Experiential Learning requirement.

⁵ PRTM 3310 is offered twice a week from the start of fall semester through to the last Thursday in September. On one Sunday, students must attend a mandatory 7.5-hour workshop. On another Sunday, student must attend a mandatory 6-hour workshop.

⁶ PRTM 4650 is a Maymester field course that must be taken in the first summer in the professional program. This course has a program fee of approximately $350-400 (subject to change) on top of tuition and fees.

⁷ See following page for pre-approved, recommended major electives. Your faculty mentor, assigned once in the professional program, may approve alternatives.

Effective for students entering Fall 2018 and later.
